

November 23, 2009

Gift Ideas for Triathletes this Holiday Season

Okay TRIJUICE followers, this post really isn't for you. This post is something for your family, wife, father, sister and friends, to help them get you something cool this Holiday Season. Stay tuned as your opportunity to land some cool gifts comes soon with the 2nd Annual TRIJUICE Holiday Giveaway Contest.

- How about upgrading their current watch with a brand new Timex Ironman Sleek 150-Lap with TapScreen Technology. This is not your ordinary Timex Ironman watch; this new and highly innovative watch features three signature elements – TapScreen Technology, Target time pacer, and Labeled interval timers. They are designed to enhance the user's performance by allowing the athlete to focus less on managing their watch during their workouts. TapScreen Technology offers effortless access to advanced lap features • Target Time Pacer, delivers distinct audible alerts and pace advice • 16 labeled Interval timers, makes complex interval workouts easy and efficient • Hydration and nutrition alarms, remind the user to refuel at regular intervals. The watches are available in a variety of men's and women's styles. MSRP: $89.95 (www.timexironman.com)

